

Let's Vote!

COLORING BOOK
OF CANDIDATES

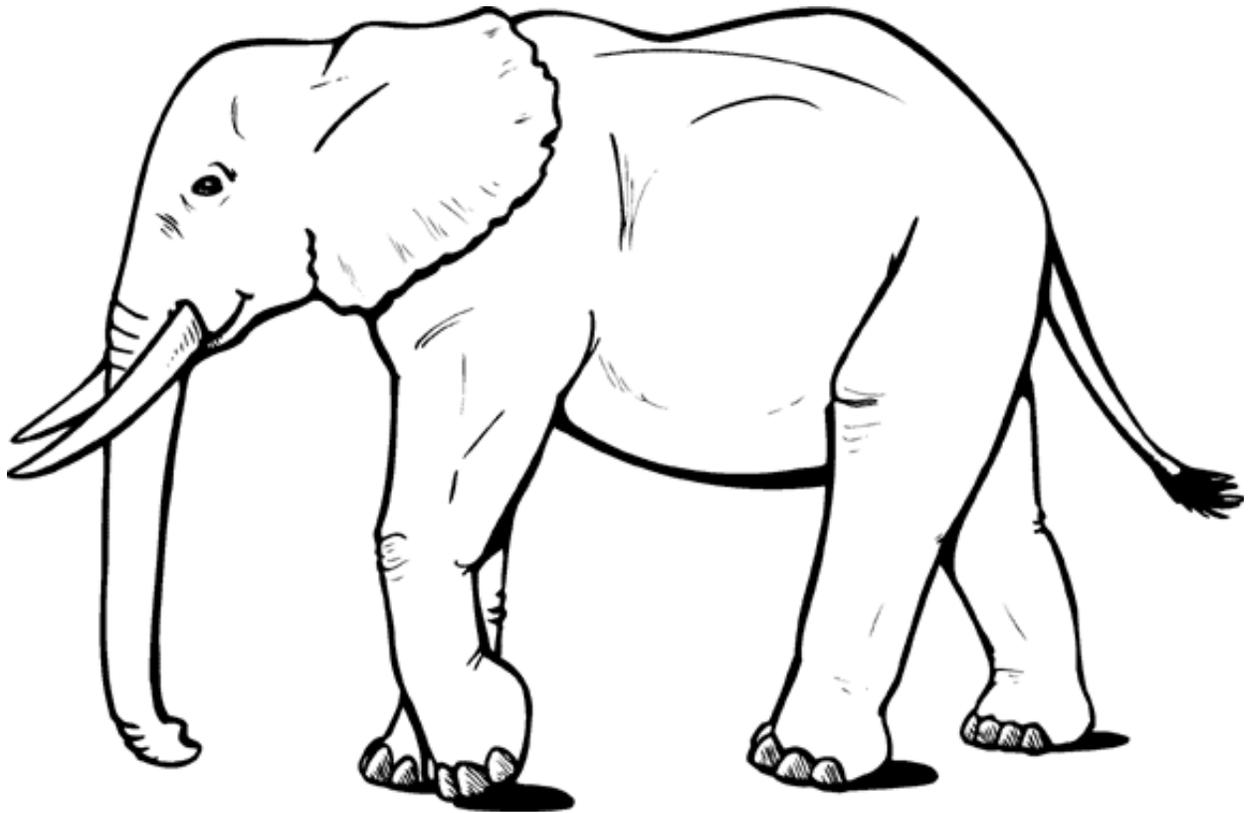

AUGUST 2016

ALLIGATOR

ALLIGATOR	Black Armored body with a muscular flat tail	8.2' - 11.2' long 500 – 1,000 pounds	Can go through 2,000 to 3,000 teeth in a lifetime.
------------------	--	---	--

ELEPHANT

ELEPHANT	Light to dark gray 1 inch thick skin with tiny hairs located on the body	8.9' – 11' tall 6,000 – 13,000 pounds	Able to suck up to 14 liters of water at a time through its trunk and then blow it straight into its mouth.
-----------------	--	--	--

GIRAFFE

GIRAFFE	Light hair with dark blotches on coat (orange, chestnut brown or nearly black)	8.9' – 11' tall 6,000 – 13,000 pounds	Tallest mammal in the world, with even new-born babies being taller than most humans.
----------------	--	--	---

MONKEY

MONKEY	Over 260 species – various shapes, sizes and color	5" – 3' tall 4 ounces - 77 pounds	They don't eat just bananas. They also eat nuts fruits, seeds and flowers.
---------------	--	--------------------------------------	--

FLAMINGO

FLAMINGO	Varied with shades of pink to crimson red	3.3' – 4.6' tall 2.6 – 8.8 pounds	Eats shrimp, algae, crustaceans	Color of their feathers are a result of the food they eat. When they eat their head is positioned upside down.
-----------------	---	--------------------------------------	---------------------------------	--

OSTRICH

OSTRICH	Males – black and white Females and young – grayish, brownish and white	5.6' – 9.9' tall 220 – 250 pounds	Eats plants, roots, and seeds but will also eat insects, lizards	Has the largest eye of any land animal, measuring almost 2 inches, allowing predators such as lions to be seen at long distances.
----------------	--	--------------------------------------	--	---

PEACOCK

PEACOCK	colorful "eye" markings of blue, gold, red, and other hues	2.1' – 9.8' tall 8.5 – 13 pounds	Eats insects, arthropods, amphibians, flowers, seeds	Male peafowl is called peacock while female is called peahen. The name of a baby peafowl is a peachick. One of the largest flying birds.
----------------	--	-------------------------------------	--	--

TOUCAN

TOUCAN	Feathers are generally black with touches of white, yellow or scarlet, with a colorful beak	11.5" - 29" tall 4.6 oz - 1.5 pounds	Eats fruit, insects, frogs, reptiles, occasional eggs of other birds	They are not good at flying and mainly travel among trees by hopping. When they do fly, they flap their wings vigorously and glide, traveling only short distances.
---------------	---	---	--	---

FOX

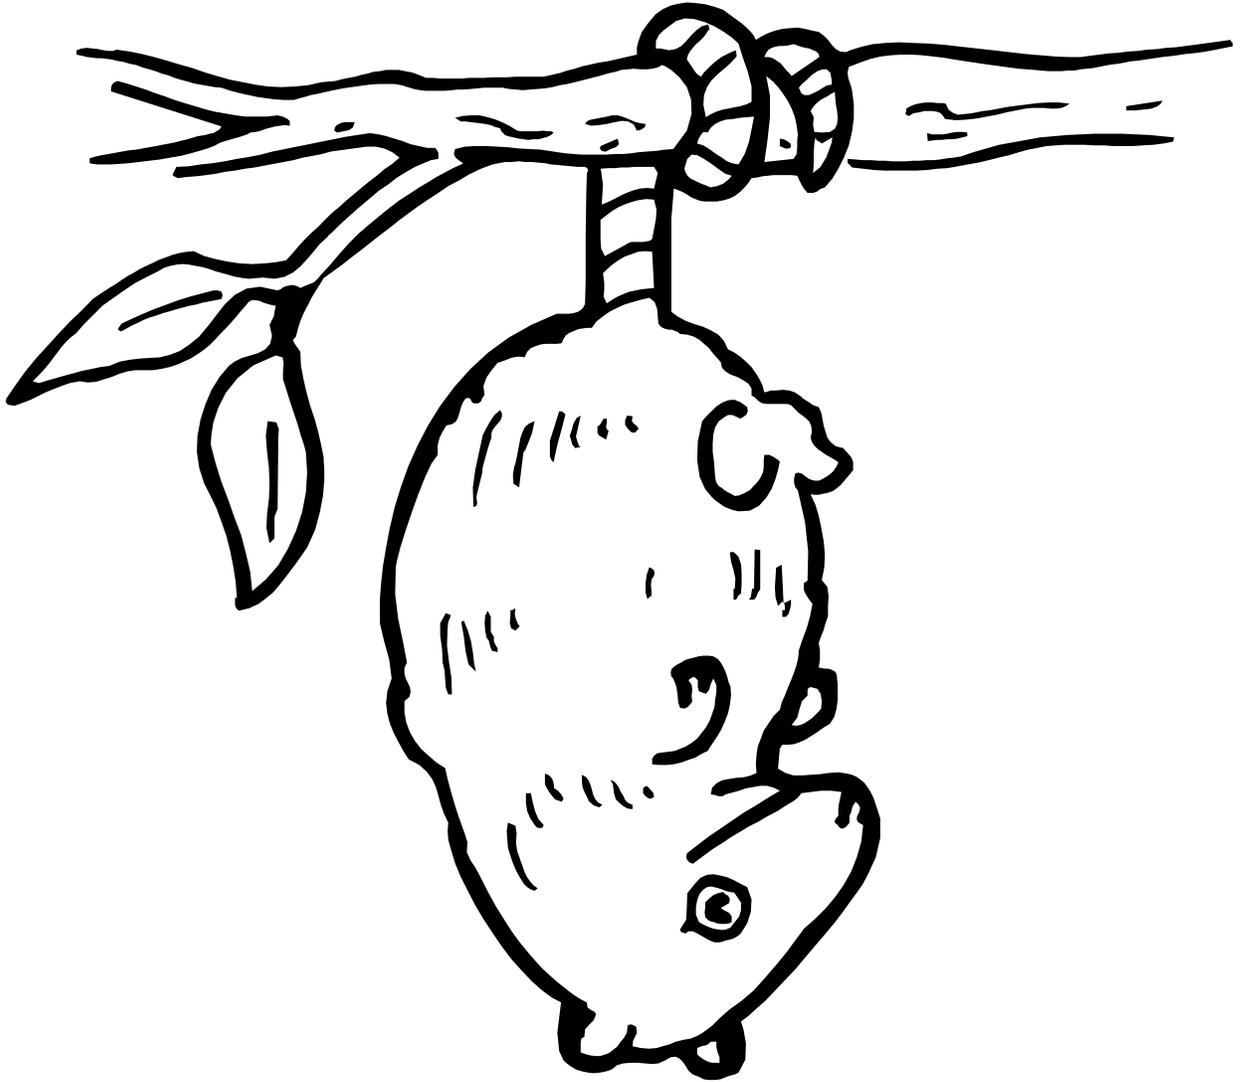

FOX	Gray or reddish brown	23" - 27" long with a 14" - 16" tail and 8 - 11 pounds	Eats small animals	Has keen hearing and excellent sense of smell and is considered cunning.
-----	-----------------------	--	--------------------	--

DEER

DEER (WHITE TAIL)	red-brown in summer; blue gray in winter	3 1/2' high and 200 pounds	Eats berries, twigs, & vegetables	Can leap 15-20 feet, can run 40 miles per hour, is a member of the only animal family with "antlers."
-------------------------	--	----------------------------------	--	---

OPOSSUM

OPOSSUM	rough grayish white hair	12" - 20" long with a 10" - 21" tail	Eats small animals & vegetables	Female has pouch in which young are carried, pretends to be dead when trapped, and hangs upside down from tree.
---------	--------------------------------	--	---------------------------------------	---

SQUIRREL

SQUIRREL	gray, brown, reddish or black	16" - 24" long and 3/4 - 1 1/2 pounds	Eats nuts, seeds, berries, & birds' eggs	Lives in trees or on the ground, stores nuts and seeds for winter.
----------	-------------------------------	---------------------------------------	--	--